IN MEMORIAM
RALPH KINER

Ralph Kiner was one of the most beloved people in Mets history – an original Met and extraordinary gentleman.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Driven by ownership, the Mets follow the philosophy of "Doing Well While Doing Good" to give back to the community through multiple platforms and initiatives throughout the year in and around New York. Ownership, players, executives and front-office staff leverage the appeal of the Mets to positively impact organizations and individuals in our hometown by addressing social, cultural and educational needs. The Mets work together with the community, our sponsors and partners on a variety of programs involving schools, hospitals, youth baseball leagues, and many other non-profit and civic organizations.

Mets FOUNDATION

The New York Mets Foundation funds and promotes a variety of educational, social and athletic programs and other charitable causes. Founded in 1963, it continues its mission to invest in the future of our community, and to provide assistance to myriad organizations that benefit children and others in need. A registered 501© 3 charity, the Mets Foundation takes no portion of the funds raised to offset internal costs. The New York Mets pay 100% of the Foundation's overhead to ensure that the entirety of a donation is directed toward helping others.

TeamMets

TeamMets is an initiative designed to bring attention to how people can volunteer in their communities. Mets Ownership, front office, players and staff give their time throughout the year working with organizations such as City Harvest, New York Cares, NYC Service and the Everybody Wins! Foundation in support of this program, which is meant to inspire and encourage our fans to consider their own commitment to volunteerism.

FUNDRAISING

A NIGHT TO BELIEVE

The Mets will host their annual Night to Believe fundraiser in the Big Apple section of Citi Field to benefit Project ALS, a non-profit organization renowned for their outstanding leadership in finding and funding treatments and a cure for Lou Gehrig's disease. This event has raised over $2 million in the past 11 years.

RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE

The Mets and the Ronald McDonald House have teamed up for the past nine years to host an "Evening with the Mets" fundraiser at Citi Field that has brought in over $250,000 for this home-away-from-home for families of seriously ill children undergoing medical treatment.

STARLIGHT NIGHT

The Mets have partnered with ARAMARK the past 11 years to raise over $1.2 million for the Starlight Children's Foundation, whose mission is to improve the quality of life for children who suffer from critical, chronic and life-threatening illnesses. The event features the wives of Mets players and coaches, a pre-game reception in the Bullpen Plaza, courtesy of ARAMARK, and seating in the Big Apple section of Citi Field as guests of the Mets.

WELCOME HOME DINNER

The Mets hold their annual Welcome Home Dinner at the start of the season to celebrate the return of the team to New York. The players, manager, coaches and the rest of the organization attend the event that features a fundraising auction, raffle and autograph session. This year's gala, scheduled for Monday, March 31 at the Hilton New York, will once again benefit the Katz Institute for Women's Health and Katz Women's Hospitals of the North Shore-LIJ Health System and The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

EDUCATION

ANTI-BULLYING

The Mets launched an anti-bullying public service awareness campaign in partnership with NYC Council Member Julissa Ferreras (21st District) designed to educate and support our children about all forms of bullying. The content of the PSA's featuring Mets players was developed in conjunction with StopBullying.gov.

CITI FIELD KIDS

Citi Field Kids is an educational and motivational community-based initiative for New York City's middle and high school students developed by Citi, the Mets and the Jackie Robinson Foundation in 2009 in conjunction with the opening of Citi Field. Kids are treated to a tour of the Jackie Robinson Rotunda led by JRF scholars, motivational speeches from special guests in the Citi Auditorium and a gift bag and lunch prior to the game.

FITNESS AND NUTRITION DAY

Thousands of students from the tri-state area are treated to a 45-minute educational program on the Mets annual Fitness & Nutrition Education Day. Mets trainers join representatives from other noteworthy health-conscious organizations to guide students in leading a healthy lifestyle and the importance of exercise. Mr. Met and the Pepsi Party Patrol add to the fun. At the conclusion of the program, the students enjoy an afternoon of baseball.

JACKIE ROBINSON FOUNDATION

The Mets and Citi have built on the team's longstanding relationship with the Jackie Robinson Foundation to support its education and leadership development programs. The Foundation provides extensive mentoring and scholarships for college students who exemplify Jackie's humanitarian ideals and standard of excellence. The Mets established an endowed scholarship in 1996, which is created in perpetuity to assist promising students in reaching their goals through a college education.

POWER LUNCH

Since 2000, Mets employees have visited P.S. 92 in Corona, Queens, to read books and share lunch with the same fourth or fifth grader every week from November through May. The school visits are coordinated by the Everybody Wins! Foundation, a leading non-profit literacy and mentoring organization that pairs adult volunteers with children in elementary schools for weekly reading aloud and conversation. The Mets add a Reading Rally hosted by a Mets player for the entire student body, a Shadow Day at Citi Field to allow the children to see their mentors at work, and an annual fourth grade field trip to the ballpark for a game.

WEATHER EDUCATION DAY

The Mets and broadcast television partner PIX11 team up each spring to provide an educational and entertaining program for students prior to a game at Citi Field. The students fill the field level seats behind the visitor's dugout as PIX11 weather experts, Mr. G and Linda Church, give an on-field presentation that includes behind-the-scenes insights and an interactive Q & A on the subject of meteorology and forecasting. The event is enhanced by CitiVision and appearances by Mr. Met and the Pepsi Party Patrol.

HELPING HANDS

AMAZIN' CALLS

Amazin' Calls connects Mets players to fans from all walks of life who have their own special story. Throughout the season a player meets a deserving individual on the field before a game after having extended a personal invitation by phone. Whether a 'thank you' for an extraordinary accomplishment or to provide a respite from a challenging illness or personal loss, they can look forward to a day at the ballpark just for them. Among notable Mets participants in 2013 were team captain and All-Star David Wright, along with teammates Scott Rice, Matt Harvey, Jonathon Niese, Bobby Parnell, Dillon Gee and Zack Wheeler.

BLOOD DRIVES

The Mets host annual Winter and Summer blood drives for the New York Blood Center in the Caesars Club at Citi Field. Donors receive two tickets to a Mets game. Since the opening of Citi Field in 2009, Mets fans have donated 4,991 pints of blood.

Mr. Met was on hand to greet fans as they arrived at Citi Field.

COAT DRIVE

The Mets provide annual support to the New York Cares Coat Drive with their own "Warm-Up" Holiday Coat Drive at Citi Field in December. Fans who donated one or more coats received a pair of tickets to a Mets game. Daniel Murphy and Zack Wheeler helped volunteers collected 1,011 coats in 2013.

FEEDING THE BIG APPLE

"Feeding the Big Apple" presented by the Hain Celestial Group is a hunger relief initiative in which Mets players and front office personnel participate in activities throughout the season with long-time Mets partners City Harvest, Citymeals-on-Wheels, Island Harvest and Rock and Wrap It Up! In addition, food drives are scheduled throughout the season at Citi Field to allow fans to do their part by dropping off food donations to the City Harvest or Island Harvest truck on Mets Plaza outside the Jackie Robinson Rotunda.

HOLIDAY FOOD DRIVE

The New York Mets hosted their annual Holiday Food Drive for City Harvest at Citi Field in November. Fans who donated at least 10 items of nutritious food received a pair of tickets to a Mets game. Mr. Met stopped by to show appreciation to the many fans who participated.

KIDS DAY AT CITI FIELD

Kids Day at Citi Field has become a tradition for children and families served by The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of New York City. The Citi Field grounds crew gives the group a lesson in preparing the field for a game before the kids take a home run dash around the bases. After a lunch break in the Modell's Clubhouse, a Mets player and coach treat the children to a baseball clinic in the outfield.

KIDS HOLIDAY PARTY

The Mets continued their tradition of inviting local school children to the ballpark for their annual Kids Holiday Party in December. This year's special guests were 100 students from Queens whose schools and homes were damaged by Hurricane Sandy. Daniel Murphy played the role of Santa Claus for the occasion, and Zack Wheeler was his chief elf, helping out with the serving of lunch and distribution of gifts selected and wrapped by Mets employees.

PLAY BALL!

GREATER NEW YORK SANDLOT ATHLETIC ALLIANCE

The Mets provide financial support to the Greater New York Sandlot Athletic Alliance (GNYSAA) for citywide tournaments and programs. The GNYSAA serves as an umbrella organization to several metropolitan amateur baseball organizations representing 25,000 young people and 1,500 teams.

YMCA JR. METS

The Mets Foundation and Citi sponsor the YMCA Jr. Mets, a comprehensive youth baseball program that emphasizes athletic and social skills as well as health and wellness. The YMCA Jr. Mets is an eight-week initiative that has introduced thousands of young people to baseball since its inception in 2001. The Mets provide members with caps and arrange for a player and coach to lead a baseball clinic at a YMCA site and at Citi Field.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL PARTNERSHIPS

BASEBALL ASSISTANCE TEAM (B.A.T.)

Founded in 1986, B.A.T. is dedicated to assisting members of the Baseball Family with medical, financial and psychological issues with confidential, short-term assistance to help get them back on their feet. Major League Baseball covers the operating expenses therefore every dollar raised is used to provide assistance to members of the Baseball Family in need. The majority of the funds raised by B.A.T. come from the players who contribute through a payroll deduction program. In 2013, the players contributed more than $2.3 million.

EQUIPMENT COLLECTION DAY

To support the growth of youth baseball and softball, the Baseball Tomorrow Fund (BTF) has teamed up with MLB clubs to organize equipment collection drives across the United States. The Mets have collected over 2,000 baseball and softball bats, gloves, balls and catcher's gear the past six seasons to benefit the Greater New York Sandlot Athletic Alliance, which distributes the donations to area youth baseball organizations. The BTF also presents a grant of $5,000 to go toward the purchase of additional equipment.

FATHER'S DAY – PROSTATE CANCER FOUNDATION

Major League Baseball teams up with the Prostate Cancer Foundation to increase awareness and early detection of prostate cancer on Father's Day. On-field personnel wear blue wristbands, eye black and ribbon uniform decals, while blue ribbon logos appear on bases, commemorative home plates and lineup cards. A "Home Run Challenge" fundraising component is implemented during select MLB games to benefit the Prostate Cancer Foundation.

Terry Collins meets the 2013 Mets Honorary Bat Girl and helps raise awareness for breast cancer.

MOTHER'S DAY – BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

MLB's Mother's Day efforts highlight special programs designed to raise awareness about breast cancer prevention and early detection, and raises funds to support breast cancer research. The Mets and 29 MLB teams will host the Honorary Bat Girl Contest to raise additional awareness and recognize fans who are "Going to Bat Against Breast Cancer" in their daily lives. The day also features special in-park "pink" programming, including pink ribbon logos on the bases and many players using pink bats.

PITCH, HIT & RUN

Aquafina MLB Pitch, Hit and Run -- the official skills competition of Major League Baseball -- is a free grass roots program which encourages youth participation and emphasizes the fun of baseball. The competitor's ability to hit, run and throw is tested at regional trials and compared with others in his or her age group across the United States to qualify for the National Finals held during Major League Baseball's All-Star Game. The Mets host an on-field regional competition at Citi Field and recognize the local winners in a pre-game ceremony.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

The Roberto Clemente Award, presented by Chevy, recognizes the player in Major League Baseball who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. In September, a nominee from each of the 30 MLB teams is announced on Roberto Clemente Day, which was established by MLB in 2002 to pay homage to the Hall of Famer's legacy. The Mets' 2013 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award was team captain David Wright.

WELCOME BACK VETERANS

Mets Chairman & CEO Fred Wilpon and private citizens created Welcome Back Veterans, a national public awareness and fundraising initiative that addresses the mental health needs of America's returning war veterans and their families. Major League Baseball, Major League Baseball Advanced Media and the McCormick Foundation working with University Hospitals throughout the country, support the program, which provides returning veterans the quality medical treatment they deserve. The Mets salute a "Veteran of the Game" at each home game at Citi Field throughout the season.

David Wright salutes a member of our armed services prior to a game.

SANDY RELIEF

After Hurricane Sandy battered the East Coast in 2012, the Mets organization made providing relief to shattered communities a priority. Mets players, ownership, and front-office personnel participated in numerous projects to assist with the recovery effort, including clean-up and donation of everything from shovels and wheelbarrows to food and water. In 2013, Mets employees continued to assist in the recovery process, helping numerous communities with donations and clean-up efforts.

MEET THE METS (LYRICS)

By Ruth Roberts & Bill Katz (1962)

Meet the Mets, meet the Mets,
Step right up and greet the Mets.
Bring your kiddies, bring your wife,
Guaranteed to have the time of your life.
Because the Mets are really sockin' the ball,
Knockin' those home runs over the wall.
East side, West side, everybody's coming down,
To meet the M-E-T-S Mets, of New York town.

Oh, the butcher and the baker and the people on the streets,
Where did they go? To MEET THE METS!
Oh, they're hollerin' and cheerin' and they're jumpin' in their seats,
Where did they go? To MEET THE METS!
All the fans are true to the orange and blue,
So hurry up and come on down -
'cause we've got ourselves a ball club,
The Mets of New York town!

Give 'em a yell! Give 'em a hand!
And let 'em know you're rootin' in the stands!
Come on and Meet the Mets, meet the Mets,
Step right up and greet the Mets.
Bring your kiddies, bring your wife,
Guaranteed to have the time of your life.
Because the Mets are really sockin' the ball,
Knockin' those home runs over the wall.
East side, West side, everybody's coming down,
To meet the M-E-T-S Mets,
Of New York town,
Of New York town!!!!!

METS PITCHERS GRAND SLAMS

In the entire history of the club, only two Mets pitchers have hit a grand slam home run.

The first one came in the club's second season, on July 15, 1963. Frank Thomas, Joe Hicks and Larry Burright were the runners when Carl Willey belted a drive over the Polo Grounds right field wall off Houston's Ken Johnson. The home run came in the second inning of the Mets' 14-5 win over the Colt 45s, and also represented the first home run ever by a Mets pitcher.

Four years later, on May 20, 1967, Jack Hamilton blasted a bases-loaded home run at Shea off St. Louis' Al Jackson. Tommy Davis, Ken Boyer and Jerry Grote marched home ahead of Hamilton, who connected in the second inning of the Mets 11-9 loss to the Cards.

And it hasn't happened since.

TWO WINS, ONE DAY

Only three pitchers in Mets history—Craig Anderson, Willard Hunter and Jesse Orosco—have won both ends of a doubleheader. Anderson did it on May 12, 1962, beating the Braves at the Polo Grounds, 3-2 and 8-7, with a combined three innings of shutout relief. Hunter accomplished the feat on August 23, 1964 at Shea when 1.2 innings of hitless relief earned him 2-1 and 5-4 wins over Chicago. Orosco joined the group on July 31, 1983 at Shea when he held the Pirates scoreless over a total of five relief innings en route to a pair of 12-inning wins, 7-6 and 1-0. John Franco earned a save and a win (respectively) in a July 30, 1996 doubleheader vs. the Pirates at Shea.

BEGINNINGS

In the last two years, Matt Harvey and Zack Wheeler have burst on to the major league scene in spectacular fashion.

On July 26, 2012, Harvey went 5.1 innings and allowed no runs with three this, three walks and 11 strikeouts to score a 3-1 victory at Arizona...In the second game of a June 18 doubleheader in Atlanta last season, Wheeler beat the Braves, 6-1. He worked 6.0 innings and permitted no runs on four hits, with five walks and seven strikeouts.

In 2014, there are another group of young Met hurlers like Rafael Montero, Jake deGrom and Noah Syndergaard who could make their major league debuts.

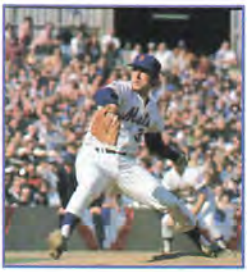
With that in mind, let's look back at the first major league games of five of the top pitchers in Mets history: Tom Seaver, Jerry Koosman, Jon Matlack, Ron Darling and Dwight Gooden.

TOM SEAVER
APRIL 13,1967 VS. PITTSBURGH AT SHEA STADIUM

WHAT SEAVER DID: Pitched 5.1 innings with six hits, two runs, earned, four walks and eight strikeouts. Had a no-decision in the Mets 3-2 win.

THE GAME: New York scored a run in the eighth inning for the victory. Chuck Estrada gained the win, while Ron Taylor picked up the save.

SEAVER RECALLS: I was scared to death before the game...In my mind the minors were a real possibility...I never considered myself any type of savior...I just wanted to do the job...This was the first time my wife and I were in New York...We had no kids at the time, just dogs...We found a street-level apartment in Bayside...I found out later Manager Wes Westrum and the coaching staff didn't want me to start the Opener before 50,000 fans...They pushed me back to the second game where the crowd would be a lot smaller and there wasn't as much outside pressure...I think I pitched before 5,000 fans...I knew what my role was...I was a journalism major in college and I knew how to play the game...I never bought into the Tom Terrific stuff...I just wanted to do my job every time I went to the mound.



JERRY KOOSMAN
APRIL 14, 1967 AT CONNIE MACK STADIUM

WHAT KOOSMAN DID: Pitched 2.2 innings of scoreless relief of Jack Fisher...Allowed no hits with no walks and two strikeouts.

THE GAME: Koosman made his first major league start on September 17 at the Astrodome in Houston...He had a no-decision in Houston's 4-3 win...In 7.0 innings, he gave up six hits, two runs, earned, with five walks and two strikeouts...The Astros scored two runs in the ninth inning for the victory.

Koosman recalls: I remember being extremely nervous when I warmed up in the bullpen...Harvey Haddix, our pitching coach, made sure he went behind the screen because he was afraid of getting hit...Harvey started waiving at me frantically and I thought he was telling me to speed up to get ready...Actually, he was telling me I was in the game. It got so bad that the umpire had to walk out where I was and say 'Kid you are in the game'...In those days you began the first month with 28 players, so on May 1, myself, Greg Goossen and Ralph Terry were sent to Triple-A...Honestly I wasn't that disappointed...I was just an old country boy from Minnesota and New York scared me a little...I came back in September to stay and things couldn't have worked out better.

JON MATLACK
JULY 11, 1971 AT RIVERFRONT STADIUM IN CINCINNATI (GAME TWO)

WHAT MATLACK DID: Had a no-decision in a 5-3 Reds win...Pitched 7.0 innings and gave up two runs, earned, on six hits with one walk and one strikeout.

THE GAME: Tom Seaver, making a rare relief outing, gave up a three-run home run to Tony Perez in the eighth inning to lift Cincinnati to a 5-3 victory and cost Matlack his first big league victory.

MATLACK RECALLS: That was a crazy time for me...We just had a baby girl (Jennifer) a few days before I was called up so I didn't have any family there...I actually replaced Jerry Koosman in the rotation because he went on the disabled list...It was the second game of a doubleheader so I had to wait a long time to pitch...The clubhouse guy gave me a bill for wearing a hole in the carpet because I walked back and forth so much...I thought I pitched pretty well...In the second inning I gave up a home run to Perez that was just fair...Tommie Agee and Donn Clendenon each knocked a run in the eighth inning and I was in line for the win...I was all excited on the bench...With the All-Star Game coming up, Tom Seaver came into pitch and unfortunately Perez hit a three-run home run and I lost my win...I pitched in a few more games and went back to the minors until September...It was a tough rotation to crack...I made it next year only because we traded Nolan Ryan to the Angels.

RON DARLING
SEPTEMBER 6, 1983 VS. PHILADELPHIA AT SHEA STADIUM

WHAT DARLING DID: Lost, 2-0, pitching 6.1 innings and giving up five hits, one run, earned, with one walk and six strikeouts.

THE GAME: Darling permitted one run in the fourth inning when he balked twice, scoring Joe Morgan, who had walked.

DARLING RECALLS: How about my first inning?...I started the game by striking out Joe Morgan and Pete Rose and then got Mike Schmidt to groundout...I'm hoping that Rose gets into the Hall of Fame one day so I could be the answer to a trivia question...We had 9,000 in the stands...I had about 30 family and friends...I could still hear my mother yelling encouragement from the stands just like she did when I was 12...The umpires called two balks on me...They said my move was too quick...Years later my move became acceptable...Everything was great about the game except that I didn't win...They actually called me up on September 1...Frank Howard was my manager and he told me I would start a week later...He said use the time to adjust and learn...It was a great move...I see a lot of similarities between the Mets now and in 1983...We had a lot of good young pitching coming...Mets fans were hopeful that there was a light at the end of the tunnel...I can see that same light now...One more thing, I singled in the fifth inning for my first hit.

DWIGHT GOODEN
APRIL 8, 1984 AT HOUSTON, THE ASTRODOME

WHAT DWIGHT DID: Worked 5.0 innings and gave up three hits, one run, earned, with two walks and five strikeouts.

THE GAME: The Mets scored a single run in the second inning on a solo home run by Darryl Strawberry and two more in the fourth inning on a double by Mookie Wilson...Houston plated its only run in the fourth inning off Gooden on a single by Billy Doran...The Mets won, 3-2.

GOODEN RECALLS: I was so nervous before the start that I didn't even wait for the team bus...I walked about six miles to the Astrodome...I didn't have a pass to get in and I had to hop a fence...The guard almost didn't let me into the clubhouse because I was this young 19-year-old kid with no ID...I was more uptight for this game than the World Series or All-Star Games...My mom and dad were in the stands and this was a dream come true for me...When I came out of the game I went inside to ice down and then went back to the bench to sweat out everything...Thankfully Jesse Orosco came in and worked 2.0 scoreless innings for the save and I had my first win...Most people thought I wasn't even going to make the team and that I was going back to the minors...I really didn't know I was going to New York until the last day of Spring Training in St. Petersburg...I actually had to go back to get my luggage...I met Davey Johnson in Instructional League the previous year and he told me then I would be on the team if he was the manager...I settled down after my first start...I know people were expecting a lot of me because I had struck out 300 the year before in Lynchburg...Thankfully I was able to calm my nerves.

HISTORY

METS HALL OF FAMER MIKE PIAZZA

PIAZZA DELIVERY FOR THE METS HALL OF FAME

There is the Kid, a Doc, a Mookie and a Tug. There is a Kiner, a Bud, two Murphs, a Casey, a Cleon and of course The Franchise. Rusty, Krane, Kooz, Agee, Straw and Franco reside there. And on Sunday, September 29, 2013 in a pre-game ceremony, Mike Piazza joined the illustrious group when he was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame.

"I've said all along the Mets have always had some very colorful and outstanding ballplayers in their history, and to be in that group is really great," noted Piazza, who became the 27th member of the Mets Hall of Fame.

Piazza, the greatest home run-hitting catcher of all-time, hit 220 of his 427 career home runs with the Mets. He ranks first in team history with a .542 slugging percentage and is third in RBI (655) after spending 1998-2005 in Queens.

Mike Piazza reads his Hall of Fame plaque the day of his induction.

In an emotional Hall of Fame ceremony in front of a capacity Citi Field crowd, Piazza teared up when thanking his family, especially his father, Vince. "He believed in me more than I believed in myself."

"Mike Piazza reinvigorated our franchise when we acquired him in May, 1998," said Mets COO Jeff Wilpon. "He is one of the greatest players in our history."

Piazza's special bond with the fans was clearly evident. "I look back now in retrospect and realize it was just fate," said Piazza, who was a seven-time All-Star with the Mets and a 10-time Silver Slugger. "I was meant to be here. I'm very proud to be a New York Met. The relationship we've had, the love you've given me and the support, words cannot describe how special it is to me."

Piazza spent eight years of his 16-year major league career in New York, the most of any stop and he considers Queens his home.

"They say that you can count your true friends on one hand," Piazza told the fans that afternoon. "This is where you guys are. Right here," Piazza continued while holding up his index finger.

Among the many memories were setting a team-record with 124 RBI and crushing 40 home runs in 1999 and then finishing with 38 home runs and 113 RBI in 2000 as the Mets qualified for the playoffs in back-to-back years for the first time in franchise history. Piazza hit his 352nd home run as a catcher on May 5, 2004 at Shea Stadium to break Carlton Fisk's major league mark and his dramatic eighth-inning home run in the first sporting event in New York City after the 9-11 attacks beat the Braves and helped the city begin the healing process.

"Every time I get back to New York, anywhere I go, even here just walking on the street, people do say that moment at least helped them try to turn the page a little bit and give them a little bit of a positive in an otherwise dark period," Piazza said. "To be remembered for one home run, if that's the home run, it's definitely an honor."

Piazza currently lives in Miami with his wife, two daughters and son. He occasionally hits the links for a round of golf and served as the hitting coach for Italy during the World Baseball Classic.

METS RETIRED NUMBERS

Casey Stengel's #37 was officially retired on September 2, 1965 in a small, private ceremony at Shea Stadium. Stengel was named the Mets first manager on September 29, 1961 and despite the team's early on-field struggles, the city proudly embraced their "lovable losers" due to Stengel's witty charm and dynamic personality. Stengel led the Mets to a 40-120 record in 1962 and then had an 11-game improvement, going 51-111 the following year. The Mets were 31-65 when Stengel fractured his hip on July 24, 1965 ending his managerial career. Stengel continued to serve in the Mets front office as a scout, public speaker and Vice President. He was still a member of the Mets front office when he passed away due to cancer on September 29, 1975 at age 85. Stengel was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1966 and later was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1981.

Gil Hodges' #14 was retired on June 9, 1973 during the Old Timers Day ceremony at Shea. Hodges played for the Mets from 1962-1963 and hit the club's very first home run on April 11, 1962 in the team's first game at St. Louis. He was named the club's third manager on October 11, 1967. Just two years later, after never posting a winning season, Hodges guided the Miracle Mets to the 1969 World Championship after beating the Atlanta Braves in the National League Championship Series and then topping the heavily favored Baltimore Orioles in five games in the World Series. Hodges was named the Manager of the Year by The Sporting News and the National League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press following the season. Hodges guided the Mets from 1968-1971, compiling 339 victories. He died from a heart attack on April 2, 1972 shocking and saddening the organization and baseball community. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1982.

Tom Seaver's #41 is the only player number in franchise history to be retired. The ceremony took place in a special tribute at Shea Stadium on June 24, 1988. Seaver won three Cy Young Awards and was a nine-time All-Star with the Mets. The Franchise won 20 or more games four times with the Mets. He earned Rookie of the Year honors in 1967. Seaver was 25-7 in 1969 to help the Mets capture the World Series. He ranks first in team history in wins (198), complete games (171), ERA (2.57), strikeouts (2,541), and shutouts (44) after pitching with New York from 1967-1977 and returning for one final year in 1983. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1992 with the highest percentage (98.84) in Hall of Fame history. Seaver was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1988.

On April 15, 1997 in a historic ceremony at Shea Stadium, acting commissioner Bud Selig announced the retirement of Jackie Robinson's #42 throughout Major League Baseball. "The day Jackie Robinson stepped on a major league field will forever be remembered as baseball's proudest moment," said Selig during the ceremony as he stood side-by-side with Jackie's widow Rachel and President Bill Clinton. "Major League Baseball is retiring #42 in tribute to his great achievements and for the significant contributions he made to society. Number 42 belongs to Jackie Robinson for the ages."

On April 8, 2008, in the final home opener in Shea Stadium's history, the Mets honored William A. Shea, the man for whom their previous ballpark was named after, by placing the name "Shea" alongside the retired numbers. Thirty members of the Shea family spanning three generations took part in the celebration. Shea was an attorney and the driving force to bring National League baseball back to New York City after the departure of the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers in 1957. He spearheaded New York City Mayor Robert Wagner's four-man baseball task force, which helped form the proposed rival Continental League. Major League Baseball granted New York a National League expansion franchise in 1960 and the Continental League agreed to disband. Shea was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1983. He died at age 84 on October 2, 1991.

1964 ALL-STAR GAME

The National League posted its seventh straight All-Star Game victory with a 7-4 win over the American League on July 7, 1964 at Shea Stadium. The Mets lone All-Star Game ended in dramatic fashion as Philadelphia's Johnny Callison stroked a three-run, walk-off home run in the bottom off the ninth inning off Boston's Dick Radatz to cap a four-run frame for the NL. San Francisco's Willie Mays started the ninth inning rally with a walk and stolen base. He scored on an infield single by teammate Orlando Cepeda's infield single and error byYankees' first baseman Joe Pepitone. The Cardinals' Curt Flood ran for Cepeda and Cincinnati's Johnny Edwards followed with a walk. Two outs later, Callison sent National League fans home happy. Ron Hunt became the first Met to start an All-Star Game with his appearance at second base. Hunt went 1-3 with a single. The AL jumped out on top 1-0 in the first inning on a RBI single by Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew off Los Angeles' Don Drysdale. The Cubs' Billy Williams and St. Louis' Ken Boyer each belted solo home runs in the bottom of the fourth off Kansas City's John Wyatt to give the National League a 2-1 lead. The NL extended its lead to 3-1 in the fifth when Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente singled and scored from first on a two-out double by the Cardinals' Dick Groat. The American League tied the contest up 3-3 in the sixth when the Yankees' Mickey Mantle and Killebrew opened the frame with singles. One out later, Baltimore's Brooks Robinson tripled both runs home as Mays just missed what would have been a spectacular diving catch. The AL retook a one run lead in the seventh inning. The Yankees' Elston Howard was hit by a pitch and Kansas City's Rocky Colavito laced a pinch-hit double to put runners at second and third. The Angels' Jim Fregosi lofted a sacrifice fly to center to score Howard. Boyer finished 2-4 for the NL while Killebrew was 3-4 and Robinson went 2-4 for the AL.

2013 ALL-STAR GAME

The Mets hosted their second All-Star Game in team history on July 16, 2013 at Citi Field and the American League pushed across single runs in the fourth, fifth and eighth innings to come away with a 3-0 victory over the National League...A sellout crowd of 45,186 witnessed the event, the first Star Gala in Queens since the 1964 contest at Shea Stadium...New York was represented by 24-year old righthander Matt Harvey who started for the NL, third baseman David Wright, who became the second Met to start an All Star Game on his own field, and Manager Terry Collins, who was a coach for the third time...Harvey worked 2.0 scoreless innings racking up three strikeouts, including Miguel Cabrera while yielding just one hit...Harvey became the third pitcher in team history to start an All-Star Game, joining Tom Seaver (1970) and Dwight Gooden (1986, 1988)...The last pitcher to start an All-Star Game in his home park was Roger Clemens in 2004 at Houston...Wright, who was 1-3 and picked up one of three NL hits (a seventh inning single) was selected to his seventh All Star Game and it was his fifth start, tying Darryl Strawberry for the second-most in team history...Wright's seven All Star appearances are tied for second-most in franchise history with Piazza and Strawberry. ..Chicago's Chris Sale worked 2.0 perfect innings to pick up the win for the AL...Arizona's Patrick Corbin, Philadelphia's Cliff Lee and Atlanta's Craig Kimbrel each allowed a run for the NL squad...Cleveland's Jason Kipnis, Toronto's Jose Bautista and Baltimore's J. J. Hardy knocked in the runs for the American League....The Yankees' Mariano Rivera took home MVP honors after receiving a standing ovation from both team and the entire stadium when he entered the game in the eighth inning...Rivera retired all three hitters he faced.

Home Uniform (1974-1977)

Road Uniform (1974-1977)

1962

Home Uniform: The colors chosen were "Dodgers Blue" and "Giants Orange," and the NY monogram on the cap was a resurrection of the Giants' logo. The jersey was white with blue pinstripes and "Mets" in script across the chest on an upward slant, which was based on the Brooklyn Dodgers uniform. Road Uniform: The words "New York" in all capital letters with orange piping were used. The home pinstripe base was replaced by a solid gray color. The same royal blue cap was used for both home and road uniforms.

1964-1965

During the team's first two seasons at Shea Stadium, a patch commemorating the city's hosting of the World's Fair replaced the Mets skyline logo on the sleeve of the home and road jersey. This was a relatively new innovation in baseball uniforms across the country and in New York. In 1938, the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants had used a patch unrelated to the team's history, also to promote the upcoming World's Fair in 1939. The patch featured the Unisphere, which is still synonymous with Queens to this day.

1965

Numbers are added to the front of both the home and away uniform shirts.

1966

The Mets skyline logo appeared on the left sleeve for the first time in 1966.

1969

A patch commemorating the 100th Anniversary of Major League Baseball is worn on the left sleeve of both the home and road jerseys, again replacing the skyline logo. The patch features the Major League Baseball logo and the wording 100th Anniversary.

1972

The Mets wear a black armband on the left sleeve of both the home and road uniforms in memory of Mets manager Gil Hodges, who passed away prior to the start of the1972 campaign. Both the home and road uniforms are changed from flannel uniforms with double-knit lettering to tackle twill.

1973

During the second half of their NL Championship season (and through the NLCS and World Series) the Mets wore a vertical patch on the right sleeve of their warmup jackets commemorating the 75th Anniversary of the incorporation of New York City into five boroughs in 1898 (prior to 1898, Brooklyn had been a separate city). The patch featured a stylized "75" logo with a map of the five boroughs place in the loop of the "5."

1974

1976

The Mets once again wear black armbands commemorating the passing of two of the primary figures at the time of the club's inception – owner/president Joan Payson and manager Casey Stengel-both of whom passed away following the 1975 season. In addition, a patch commemorating the National League Centennial is on the right sleeve. For selected games during the season the team also wears special striped hat as part of the celebration surrounding the NL Centennial.

The white jersey changes to a pullover with a two-button, crew-neck style collar. Two blue stripes and one orange stripe, equal in width, are added to the cuff of both the left and right sleeve, as well as around the collar. In addition, orange and blue striping is added down the leg of the road pants.

1979

Prior to the start of the season, the National League passed a rule requiring all teams to wear names on the backs of their road uniforms. Although not required by the League offices, the Mets also add names to the back of their home uniforms.

1979-1980

The years of the mismatched uniforms, with some of the old 1979 uniforms still being worn in 1980, when the design changed slightly. Some had logo patches on the sleeve and some didn't. Some had the uniform numbers hugh up on the players' backs, some had the numbers way down low. Most had player names on the back, but some didn't (Claudell Washington was with the Mets for a month until they could find a plaque big enough to fit his name).

1982

The Mets add an alternate blue road jersey for the '82 campaign. The royal blue pullover jersey features thick orange and blue racing stripes with "Mets" across the chest.

1983

The pullover white pinstriped jersey with thick striping from the neck all the way down to the socks is unveiled. In addition, the skyline logo is removed from the jersey. The Mets road jersey also changed to the pullover variety with "Mets" in script across the chest of the gray jersey with the thick stripes down the side.

1986

The team wears a special 25th Anniversary patch commemorating the franchise's founding year of 1962.

1987

The only Mets uniform to last but a single year. The 1987 road uniform marked the first appearance of the words "New York" written in script across the chest.

1988

"New York" on the front of the road jersey is changed to block lettering in an arch across the chest. A white outline is added to the outline of all letters and numbers as well as to the racing stripe down the side of the uniform.

1991

Buttons return to the uniform. The home jersey still features the script "Mets" and the road jersey keeps the block-lettered "New York".

1992

A special "S" patch is added to the sleeve of both the home and road jerseys in tribute to the late William A. Shea, who was instrumental in the birth of the franchise.

1993

The skyline logo returns to the left sleeve of both the home and road jerseys while the thick racing stripes are removed from both uniforms. A new script is used for the "Mets" lettering across the chest of the home uniform. The lettering is similar to the script "Mets" used from the team's inception, with an added tail that underlines the entire word. In addition, the "zig-zag" pinstripes that had been featured on the home uniform since 1972, is changed to a straight pinstripe. The road jersey features a script lettering "New York" that also is underlined. Finally all hats worn by teams across Major League Baseball feature the MLB logo, centered on the back of the cap.

1994

A patch commemorating the 125th Anniversary of Major League Baseball is worn on the right sleeve of both the home and road uniforms. The skyline logo on the left sleeve is also replaced for this season with a special patch commemorating the 25th Anniversary of the Miracle Mets.

1995

The skyline logo returns to the sleeve of both the home and road uniforms, while the underlining of the "Mets" and "New York" on both versions of the jerseys is removed in favor of the more classic lettering. The button atop the blue Mets cap is changed from royal blue to orange.

1996

Both the home and road jerseys are embroidered with a special logo which features a home plate design and inscription "J.M., N.L. Umpire, 10" in memory of John McSherry, an umpire who died during a game on Opening Day of the 1996 season.

1997

An alternate home "snow white" uniform is added. The jersey is very similar to the traditional home uniform, without the pinstripes. The team also adds an alternate white cap with a blue brim and an interlocking orange NY. Finally, all teams across Major League Baseball feature a special 50th Anniversary patch commemorating Jackie Robinson's breaking baseball's color.

1998

The alternate white cap is scrapped in favor of a new black cap with royal blue trim and an inter-locking NY in royal blue. The team also adds a second alternate jersey, which is worn both at home as well as on the road. The black uniform, with "Mets" across the chest on an upward slant, features blue letters and numbers with a white and orange drop shadow.

1999

A second alternate cap is added. The all-black cap features an interlocking NY in royal blue with white and orange drop shadow. In addition, player names are removed from all three jerseys worn at home – white pinstripes, "snow white," and black alternate. An alternate black road jersey is added as well, similar to the alternate black home jersey, but featuring "New York" across the chest. Additionally, a slight change is made in the Mets skyline logo, as the small interlocking NY is removed. This is the first change to the skyline logo since the team's inception in 1962.

2000

All teams add the Major League Baseball logo to the back of the home, road and alternate jerseys. The team also opens the season in Tokyo, Japan and feature a special patch commemorating the first games played outside North America. Player names return to the back of all versions of the home jersey after a one-year hiatus. Finally, the Mets wear a patch with the official logo of the 2000 World Series during that years' Fall Classic.

2001

The team wears a special patch in memory of the passing of Mets legend Tommie Agee, who died of a heart attack prior to the season and prospect Brian Cole, who was killed in an automobile accident. The patch featured 20 and 60, the numbers worn by Agee and Cole, and was worn for the Mets home opener on April 10, 2001. Later in the season, in response the attacks on September 11th, the Mets wear caps honoring the NYPD, FDNY, Port Authority, Emergency Medical Services, and numerous other city services that were affected by the terrorist attacks. An American flag is also added to the back of all jerseys league wide, and American flags are also added to the side of all caps.

2002

The Mets honor the franchise's 40th Anniversary with a commemorative patch on the right sleeve of the home jerseys, below which is stitched "9-11-01" in remembrance of the September 11th attacks.

2004

The team celebrates Shea Stadium's 40th birthday with a patch on the right sleeve of the home jersey. The logo is split between blue and orange and features the iconic pitcher and batter neons which adorned Shea Stadium's exterior. All jerseys also feature an embroidered "Ya Gotta Believe-Tug" patch, in memory of former Mets reliever Tug McGraw. The team also honors the passing of the voice of the Mets, as "Bob Murphy" is embroidered above the Mets logo on the left sleeve in memory of the Hall of Fame broadcaster.

2008

In recognition of the team's final season at Shea Stadium, the Mets wear a patch commemorating their time in the ballpark which opened in 1964. The logo is adorned to the right sleeve and features a split image of the stadium's original facade from 1964 coupled with a more modern version. The imagery is then surrounded by the wording "Shea Stadium 1964-2008."

2009

The Mets open Citi Field with a patch commemorating their first year in their new world-class home. The logo is placed on the right sleeve of the Mets home jersey and resembles the Citi Field logo, but features the wording "Inaugural Season 2009."

2010

The Mets introduce a new pinstripe jersey that combines elements of both new and old Mets uniforms. The natural color and pinstripes were staples of the Mets uniform when the team debuted in 1962, and were complemented by a more modern day script "Mets" across the chest.

2012

To celebrate the club's 50th Anniversary, the team will wear white and road grey uniforms reflecting the look of the original uniform from their inaugural season. The black dropshadow will be removed from the Mets script logo, letters and numbers. The pinstripe jersey will be the primary home uniform. The Mets also introduced a 50th Anniversary logo that incorporates the basic elements of the original blue and orange skyline logo, with gold accents in celebration of the franchise's golden anniversary. The Mets will wear a new blue and orange batting practice jersey.

2013

The Mets introduced a blue alternate home and road jersey for the 2013 season. Both versions features Mets blue with orange piping with the orange lettering on the home jersey and silver lettering on the road one. The 2013 All-Star logo patch is featured on the left sleeve. The club also introduced two new hats for the season. The first is a training cap that is crafted from high-performance materials. The hat features a royal blue crown, and an orange button and visor. The logo is a running Mr. Met. The other hat new for the 2013 season is called the alternate cap. It also has a royal blue crown with an orange button and visor. The logo is a two-color "NY" with a bold white outline.

2014

The Mets will wear camouflage jerseys and hats during Monday night home games to salute U.S. servicemen and women. Also, in 2014, a Mr. Met patch will be added to the Mets alternate home and road jerseys.

For the first two years of their existence, the Mets played their home games at the historic Polo Grounds while waiting for the finish of the construction of Shea Stadium.

The stadium where the Mets won 56 games during the 1962 and 1963 seasons actually was the fourth venue to carry the name the "Polo Grounds." The first structure, located between 110th and 112th Streets and Fifth and Sixth Avenues in upper Manhattan, opened its doors in 1876 as a home to polo matches. In 1880, the New York Metropolitans leased the grounds for baseball with the New York Giants following suit three years later.

The second Polo Grounds, sporting a 15,000-seat wooden grandstand, was located on 155th Street and Eighth Avenue with the Giants as the main tenants. Although polo was not played there, the team brought the name of its former home. It was here that the famous quirky dimensions—475 feet to centerfield and only 258 feet out to right—were first unveiled. After a fire destroyed the stadium in 1911, it was rebuilt later that year with a capacity of 34,000.

In 1913, the Yankees joined the Giants as tenants, but left after an attendance dispute in 1922. Finally, in 1924, the fourth remodeling of the Polo Grounds was finished, complete with seating for 55,987. It was this incarnation that the Mets began calling home in 1962.

The Giants left New York and the Polo Grounds in 1957, leaving the stadium with only the memories of some of the most famous moments in baseball history, such as Bobby Thomson's game-winning "Shot Heard 'Round the World" to clinch the 1951 pennant, and Willie Mays' over-the-shoulder catch in the 1954 World Series. Without a Major League Baseball team as a regular tenant, the stadium deteriorated to the point where the Mets needed to spend $300,000 to refurbish the ballpark before moving in to start the 1962 season.

With a fresh coat of paint, a new scoreboard, better lighting, more dining options for fans and a complete overhaul of the outfield and infield grass, the Mets played their first home game in the Polo Grounds on April 13, 1962 and lost 4-3 to the Pittsburgh Pirates. New York played 160 more games at their temporary home over the next two seasons and left for good following a 5-1 loss to Philadelphia Phillies on September 18, 1963.

The aging stadium was finally demolished over a period of four months in 1964. A housing development now occupies the famous site.

SHEA STADIUM

The Mets first game at Shea Stadium, April 17, 1964.

In 1964, the Mets moved from Manhattan to Queens and their brand-new home, William A. Shea Municipal Stadium. Located on 126th Street and Roosevelt Avenue, Shea would welcome more than 94 million fans and some of the most famous moments in Mets history during its 45 years.

The stadium originally was to be called "Flushing Meadows Stadium." But in 1962, behind a movement led by department store magnate Bernard Gimbel, the Flushing Meadows Stadium label was dropped in favor of a name that honored the man most responsible for returning National League baseball to New York, prominent attorney Bill Shea. Shea Stadium was born.

Architect John Waterbury drew up the plans for the stadium and the ceremonial ground-breaking took place on October 28, 1961. The designs called for the city to contribute $24.5 million to construct the ballpark, with the Mets to chip in another $6.5 million for office space, restaurants and other amenities.

The 55,300-seat stadium was completed and Shea opened to 48,736 fans on April 17, 1964. But in a scene reminiscent of Opening Day at the Polo Grounds two years earlier, the Pirates again beat the Mets, 4-3.

In their first season at Shea, the Mets drew 1,732,597 fans and hosted the All-Star Game before baseball handed off the reigns to football and the New York Jets for the winter. Football would be a permanent winter staple in Queens until 1983, when the Jets left for New Jersey.

Shea was designed to be a multi-purpose complex—it was the first major stadium in the United States to have two movable field box sections—and as such held a variety of events. The Beatles gave the first-ever concert at Shea Stadium on August 15, 1965, in front of more than 55,000 fainting, crying and screaming fans. It was, and remains to this day, the most historic concert ever, as it was the first time in history that a sports stadium was used for a rock concert. The groundbreaking Beatles concert at Shea set new attendance records at the time; it was the first large-scale, outdoor concert that demonstrated such events could be hugely successful and profitable.

Other unforgettable Shea moments include the historic papal Mass celebrated by Pope John Paul II in 1979, plus concerts staged by music legends including Billy Joel, The Rolling Stones, Elton John, Eric Clapton, Jimi Hendrix and Bruce Springsteen. The stadium also played host to a wide variety of sporting events, such as soccer, boxing and wrestling matches and college football, along with the normal schedule of baseball and NFL football games.

In 1975, Shea was the center of the New York sports world. The Mets, Yankees, Jets and Giants all called the stadium home, marking the first and only time in professional sports history that two baseball teams and two football teams shared the same facility in the same year. Both the Yankees and Giants needed a temporary home while Yankee Stadium underwent renovations.

Throughout the years, Shea was the site for some of the most memorable moments in Mets history: Cleon Jones catching the clinching out of the 1969 World Series, the amazing comeback in Game Six of the 1986 World Series, and President Bill Clinton joining Jackie Robinson's widow, Rachel, to retire the Hall of Famers uniform number 42 on April 15, 1997. Shea finally closed its doors on September 28, 2008 following the Mets' 4-2 loss to the Florida Marlins.

The demolition of Shea took several months, with the final piece coming down on February 18, 2009 at 11:22 A.M. Citi Field's Parking Lot D covers the grounds where Shea once stood, with markers commemorating the original locations of the stadium's home plate, bases and pitching mound.

JACKIE ROBINSON ROTUNDA

The iconic main entry to Citi Field honors Jackie Robinson, the great American trailblazer who became the first African-American player to break Major League Baseball's color barrier with the Dodgers in 1947. Evoking the classic design of Ebbets Field, the Rotunda recognizes and perpetuates the humanitarian ideals of one of our country's civil rights pioneers. Engraved into the Rotunda's 160-foot diameter floor and etched into its 70-foot archways are words and larger-than-life images that defined Jackie's "nine values": Courage, Excellence, Persistence, Justice, Teamwork, Commitment, Citizenship, Determination, and Integrity. The Rotunda features an eight-foot sculpture of Jackie's number 42, which was retired in perpetuity throughout Major League Baseball in 1997.

METS HISTORY

The Mets Hall of Fame and Museum at Citi Field is the home for six decades of Mets history. Located adjacent to the Jackie Robinson Rotunda, the museum is a virtual walk down memory lane, featuring a treasure trove of artifacts and images. Its interactive touch-screen exhibits showcase video and audio highlights of the franchise's signature moments.

Citi Field's VIP entrances are named after individuals who made an indelible mark on the club and whose numbers have been retired. First Base VIP honors Gil Hodges, the manager who led the Mets to their first World Championship in 1969. Third Base VIP recognizes Tom Seaver, the Hall of Fame pitcher and Mets leader in wins, earned run average and strikeouts. Left Field VIP is named after Casey Stengel, the first manager in Mets history.

Fans tour the Mets Hall of Fame and Museum before a Mets home game.

Photographic imagery of famous Mets and historic moments are displayed inside Citi Field along the concourses and outside the ballpark with banners on Mets plaza, in the parking lots and encasing the ramp in leftfield. More than 27,000 bricks outside the Rotunda on the Citi Field Fanwalk pay tribute to the Mets, their fans and the Amazin' Moments in team history.

The original Home Run Apple from 1981 is one of the most popular attractions at Citi Field and its position on Mets Plaza serves as a meeting spot for many fans.

Home Run Apple

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN: Inspired by Mets' National League Heritage. The brick, limestone, granite and cast stone throughout the ballpark closely resembles the masonry used at Ebbets Field, the legendary home of the Brooklyn Dodgers. The dark green seats and soot-colored exposed steel recall the Mets' first home, the historic Polo Grounds and former home of the New York Giants. Shea Bridge in right-center is named after William A. Shea, extending the legacy of the man who was the driving force behind bringing National League baseball back to New York and for whom Shea Stadium was named.

Citi Field Environment

CITI FIELD AND THE ENVIRONMENT: The Mets have implemented a wide range of sustainable environmental initiatives the design construction and operation of Citi Field. The ballpark was built with recycled concrete and construction vehicles were fueled with ultra lowsulfur diesel. Citi Field's building management system monitors and automatically controls all aspects of energy operation from temperatures to lights to minimize energy consumption. Grease and cooking oil are recycled along with cardboard, glass, metal, bottles, cans, light bulbs and batteries. The Mets save more than four million gallons of water per year by using 414 hands-free faucets, 635 automated toilet flush-valves and 270 waterless urinals. A 11,000 square foot green roof atop the administration building in rightfield, white PVC roofs throughout the ballpark, high mast parking lot light fixtures, permeable pavers, and an underground well used to irrigate the playing field are other ways the Mets are working to protect the environment.

TWO STADIUM DOUBLEHEADERS

The Mets and Yankees have previously met in a day-night, home-road doubleheader three times. The Mets and Yankees first historic doubleheader took place on July 8, 2000. Both New York teams played a regularly scheduled day game at Shea Stadium and then a played a night game at Yankee Stadium which was a rescheduled contest from a rainout on June 11th. The Yankees won both games by the same 4-2 score. According the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first day-night doubleheader taking place in different venues since September 7, 1903. On that day, the New York Giants played two games against the Brooklyn Superbas (later known as the Dodgers). The first game was played in the morning at Brooklyn's Washington Park with John McGraw's Giants winning, 6-4. The second game was an afternoon contest at the Polo Grounds with Brooklyn winning, 3-0. The other day-night, Shea-Yankee Stadium doubleheaders were on June 28, 2003 and June 27, 2008. In 2003, the day game took place at Yankee Stadium with the Yankees winning, 7-1. The night cap was at Shea and the Yankees prevailed, 9-8. In 2008, the final year of both Shea Stadium and Yankee Stadium, the Mets and Yankees played a day-night, cross-borough doubleheader. The Mets won the day game at Yankee Stadium, 15-6, and the Yankees took the night cap, 9-0, at Shea.

1969 WORLD SERIES

BALTIMORE ORIOLES vs. NEW YORK METS

Mets Won Series 4-1

The New York Mets entered the 1969 World Series as heavy underdogs against Baltimore. After falling in Game One, the Amazins' rattled off four straight wins to earn their first championship, just eight years after the franchise was born.

In Game One, Baltimore's leadoff batter Don Buford smacked a home run off Tom Seaver. Mike Cuellar and the Orioles went on to a 4-1 triumph.

In Game Two, Jerry Koosman tossed 6.0 no-hit innings before Paul Blair singled to lead off the seventh. With the game tied, 1-1, in the ninth, Ed Charles, Jerry Grote and Al Weis strung together consecutive two-out singles to give New York a 2-1 lead. Koosman retired the first two batters in the ninth, before walking the next two. Ron Taylor got the final out of the game, retiring Brooks Robinson to even the series at one game apiece.

A raucous Shea crowd of 56,335 watched the Mets shut out Baltimore, 5-0 in Game Three. Tommie Agee hit a leadoff home run off Jim Palmer, the only leadoff home run the Hall of Famer would ever allow, to put the Mets on the board early. In the fourth, the Orioles threatened, with runners at the corners and two outs, when Agee made a running, backhanded catch at the warning track in left-center to rob Elrod Hendricks. In the seventh, Baltimore loaded the bases with two outs, Blair laced a high drive to right-center, Agee running full tilt caught the ball sprawling on the warning track. Tommie had made two of the greatest World Series catches ever, just three innings apart.

In Game Four, Seaver out-dueled Cuellar in a thrilling 10-inning, 2-1 victory. Donn Clendenon belted a solo home run in the second to give the Mets a 1-0 lead, which would hold up until the ninth. The Orioles put runners at first and third with one out, Brooks Robinson laced a sinking line drive to right-center. Ron Swoboda made a full length, diving catch. The tying run scored, but the brilliant catch prevented further damage. In the bottom of the 10th, with runners at first and second and nobody out, J.C. Martin pinch-hit for Seaver. Martin dropped a bunt down and Orioles' pitcher Pete Richert fielded the ball, but his throw hit Martin and the ball caromed into rightfield allowing Rod Gaspar to score from second. The Mets were one win away from their first title, while Baltimore argued that Martin was outside the basepath.

The unthinkable occurred on October 16, 1969 at Shea. Behind a 5-3 victory, New York's lovable losers were champions. The Orioles led 3-0 early, but home runs by Clendenon and Weis tied the game. In the eighth, Swoboda gave the Mets the lead with an RBI double. Koosman induced future Mets Manager Davey Johnson to fly out to Cleon Jones in leftfield for the final out. Jones (Sport Magazine) and Weis (BBWAA) were the Series MVP's.

A jubilant Jerry Koosman leaps into the arms of catcher Jerry Grote after the final out of the 1969 World Series in Game Five vs. Baltimore.

1973 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

CINCINNATI REDS vs. NEW YORK METS

Mets Won Series 3-2

New York captured their second pennant in five years with a thrilling five-game series win over Cincinnati.

In Game One, Pete Rose and Johnny Bench each belted home runs to upend Tom Seaver and the Mets, 2-1. Seaver allowed six hits and fanned a NLCS record 13 batters in the losing effort.

Jon Matlack was brilliant in Game Two, tossing a two-hitter to win, 5-0. Rusty Staub's home run in the fourth was the only run of the game until New York plated four in the ninth, two scoring on Jerry Grote's single.

The Mets scored nine runs in the first four innings en route to a 9-2 victory at Shea in Game Three. Staub cracked a solo home run in the first and a three-run shot in the second. The game featured an infamous fight between Pete Rose and Buddy Harrelson after Rose slid hard into second base attempting to break up a double play. After the bench-clearing brawl, Jerry Koosman continued to dominate the Reds.

Rose got his revenge with a 12th inning home run in Game Four to give the Reds a 2-1 victory and send the series to a fifth and deciding game.

Ed Kranepool gave New York a 2-0 lead in the first with a two-run single in Game Five in front of 50,323 fans at Shea. After Cincinnati tied the game 2-2 in the top of the fifth, the Mets exploded for four runs in the bottom of that frame. Cleon Jones, Willie Mays, Don Hahn and Harrelson each collected an RBI. Seaver and Tug McGraw held the Reds at bay as New York advanced to face Oakland in the World Series.

Bud Harrelson and Pete Rose start a bench-clearing brawl in Game Three of the 1973 NLCS.

Tug McGraw reacts after saving the Mets 2-0 Game Five win.

New York lost its first ever postseason series, falling in a seven-game set to the Oakland Athletics.

In Game One, the A's nipped the Mets, 2-1, despite managing just four hits off Jon Matlack and Tug McGraw. Second baseman Felix Millan's error in the third inning proved costly as Oakland's only two runs of the game would score in that inning. New York evened the series with a 10-7, 12-inning victory in Game Two. Oakland scored two runs in the ninth to tie the game, 6-6, to force extra innings. Willie Mays singled home Bud Harrelson with the go-ahead run in the 12th, which would prove to be Mays's last hit in the majors.

The World Series returned to Shea and Wayne Garrett cracked a solo home run as the Mets jumped on top, 2-0 in the first inning of Game Three. Once again, Oakland rallied to tie the game in the eighth and scored in the 11th for a 3-2 victory.

The Mets tied the series at two games apiece with a 6-1 triumph in Game Four. Rusty Staub drove in five runs, with a three-run home run in the first and a two-run single in the fourth. Matlack allowed three hits in 8.0 innings to pick up the win.

New York took a 3-2 series lead with a 2-0 win at Shea in front of 54,817 fans in Game Five. Jerry Koosman and McGraw shut out the A's on three hits.

Needing just one win in Oakland to capture their second championship, the Mets lost Game Six, 3-1 and Game Seven, 5-2. In Game Six, Reggie Jackson had two RBI doubles off Tom Seaver.

Four Oakland runs in the third inning on home runs by Bert Campaneris and Jackson in Game Seven broke the game open. Garrett, the tying run in the ninth, popped out to end the series and New York's dream.

The great Willie Mays cannot believe that Buddy Harrelson was called out at home in the 10th inning of Game Two of the 1973 World Series vs. Oakland...New York eventually won that contest, 10-7, in 12 innings on a RBI single by Mays.

Lenny Dykstra rounds the bases after hitting the game-winning home run in Game Three of the NLCS to give the Mets a 6-5 victory.

New York improved to 3-0 in the NLCS with a dramatic six-game victory, avoiding Houston ace Mike Scott in Game Seven.

The Mets returned to the postseason after a 13-year absence and lost Game One, 1-0. Scott hurled a complete-game, five-hit shutout with 14 strikeouts. Glenn Davis swatted a home run in the second inning for the lone run of the game.

Bobby Ojeda matched Scott in Game Two, with a complete-game, 5-1 victory to tie the series. Gary Carter had an RBI double in the fourth and Keith Hernandez added a two-run triple in the fifth.

In Game Three, back at Shea, the Mets fell behind 4-0, but Darryl Strawberry's three-run home run in the sixth helped tie the game. Trailing 5-4, with one on and one out, Lenny Dykstra cracked a two-run home run into the Mets bullpen to give New York a 6-5 victory.

Scott again was brilliant in Game Four, tossing a complete-game three-hitter as the Astros won 3-1.

Nolan Ryan and Dwight Gooden locked horns in a tremendous pitching duel in Game Five. Ryan allowed two hits (Strawberry home run) with 14 strikeouts in 9.0 innings, while Doc scattered nine hits in 10.0 innings. Carter's RBI single in the 12th gave New York the win and left them one win away from their third trip to the World Series.

Game Six at the Astrodome was simply a classic, the longest postseason game in time (4:42) and innings (16). Houston led 3-0 until the Mets tied it in the ninth on RBI's from Mookie Wilson, Hernandez and Ray Knight. With the Mets leading, 4-3, in the bottom of the 14th, Billy Hatcher hit a home run off the leftfield screen off Jesse Orosco. In the 16th, New York scored three times, as Strawberry's double and Knight's single put the Mets ahead. Houston rallied for two runs, but Orosco struck out Kevin Bass with the winning run on base, to become the first pitcher to earn three wins in one LCS.

For only the second time in World Series history, a team lost the first two games at home, but emerged as the World Champion, as New York won its second title in amazing fashion against the Boston Red Sox.

In Game One, Bruce Hurst and Calvin Schiraldi combined to shut out the Mets, 1-0. Jim Rice scored the lone run on an error by second baseman Tim Teufel.

Boston scored nine times on 18 hits in a 9-3 win in Game Two.

In Boston, Lenny Dykstra led off Game Three with a solo home run to ignite a four-run first inning. Bobby Ojeda stymied the Sox through 7.0 innings as New York won, 7-1.

In Game Four, Gary Carter cracked two home runs and Ron Darling's 7.0 shutout innings helped the Mets even the series with a 6-2 triumph.

In the pivotal fifth game, Hurst tossed a complete game for the Red Sox as Boston won, 4-2.

The Mets returned to Shea for Game Six in a contest that would become part of World Series lore. New York, facing elimination, trailed 2-0 in the bottom of the fifth, 3-2 entering the bottom of the eighth and 5-3 going to the bottom of the 10th. Ray Knight's RBI single helped tie the contest in the fifth and Carter's sacrifice fly tied the game in the eighth. After Dave Henderson's home run had put the Sox ahead in the 10th, both Backman and Hernandez were retired. But Carter, Kevin Mitchell and Knight followed with singles to cut the deficit to 5-4. Boston reliever Bob Stanley was summoned and on a 2-2 count, Mookie Wilson fouled back two pitches before dodging a wild pitch that allowed Mitchell to score to tie the game. Wilson then hit a dribbler up the first base line that bounced under Bill Buckner's legs, enabling Knight to score the winning run.

After a day of rain, the Mets won their second World Championship with an 8-5 triumph. Boston built a 3-0 lead, but New York scored three runs in the sixth, two runs coming home on a single by Hernandez. Knight's seventh inning home run gave the Mets the lead for good. Santana and Hernandez would drive in runs later in the inning and Darryl Strawberry cracked a solo home run in the eighth. Orosco struck out Marty Barrett for the final out as Shea erupted in euphoria. Knight was named the Series MVP.

Darryl Strawberry led the National League with 39 home runs and drove in 101 runs in 1988.

Despite beating the Dodgers in 10 of 11 match-ups during the regular season, Los Angeles knocked off New York in seven games. It was the first time in four NLCS appearances that the Mets failed to reach the World Series.

New York rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to take Game One, 3-2. Darryl Strawberry had an RBI double in the inning and a two-out, two-run double by Gary Carter proved to be the difference.

The Dodgers scored five runs off David Cone in the first two innings of Game Two and went on to win, 6-3.

In a steady cold rain, the Mets won Game Three, 8-4. Trailing 4-3, the Mets scored five times in the bottom of the eighth. A two-out RBI double by Wally Backman tied the game and Mookie Wilson's RBI single gave the Mets the lead for good.

The turning point of the series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Four when Mike Scioscia's two-run home run off Dwight Gooden tied the game, 4-4. Kirk Gibson cracked a home run off Roger McDowell to win the game in the 12th as Los Angeles tied the series.

Gibson remained hot and belted a three-run home run in the fifth inning to lift the Dodgers to a 7-4 victory in Game Five.

On the brink of elimination, Kevin McReynolds went 4-4 with three RBI and Cone hurled a complete game in a 5-1 Game Six win to force a seventh and deciding game.

Orel Hershiser tossed a complete-game, five-hit, 6-0 shutout to beat the Mets in Game Seven. Los Angeles scored five times in the second inning to break open the contest.

Todd Pratt is greeted at home plate after his 10th inning, walk-off, series-ending home run in Game Four vs. Arizona in the 1999 National League Division Series...Pratt's solo blast to center just eluded D-Backs centerfielder Steve Finley to give the Mets a 4-3 win.

The Mets returned to the postseason for the first time since 1988 and defeated Arizona in the NLDS in four games.

John Olerud and Edgardo Alfonzo each touched up Randy Johnson for home runs as the Mets built a 4-1 lead in Game One. The Diamondbacks tied the contest in the sixth, but Alfonzo walloped his second home run of the night, a grand slam, in the ninth to lift New York to an 8-4 win.

Arizona captured Game Two, 7-1, behind Steve Finley's five RBI to even the series.

Back in New York and with Mike Piazza on the bench for Game Three with a bad thumb, the Mets scored six times in the sixth to beat the D-Backs, 9-2. Olerud and Darryl Hamilton each collected two RBI.

In the fourth game, in front of 56,177 fans at Shea, the Mets trailed, 3-2, but Roger Cedeño tied the game in the eighth with a sacrifice fly. In the 10th, back-up catcher Todd Pratt ended the series and sent the Mets to the NLCS with a solo walk-off home run off Matt Mantei that landed just out of the reach of Finley. Longtime Met John Franco earned his first postseason victory.

Atlanta outlasted New York in a dramatic six-game series.

Gerald Williams had an RBI single to break a 1-1 tie in the bottom of the fifth inning as the Braves went on to a 4-2 victory in Game One.

The Mets returned to Shea in a 0-2 hole after losing, 4-3, in Game Two. Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez each hit a two-run home run off Kenny Rogers in the sixth inning to erase a 2-0 Mets lead.

In Game Three, two Mets errors in the first inning allowed Atlanta to score the only run of the game in a 1-0 loss.

Trailing 2-1 in the bottom of the eighth, four outs from having their season end, New York responded in Game Four. John Olerud, who had hit a solo home run in the sixth, singled to centerfield in the eighth which plated two runs to give the Mets a 3-2 victory.

Game Five was a classic. A 15-inning, five-hour and 46-minute marathon was played in driving rain. The Mets led 2-0 in the first inning on a two-run home run by Olerud, but the Braves tied the game in the fourth. Seven New York relievers combined to hold Atlanta scoreless entering the 15th. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the 15th when Keith Lockhart's triple off Octavio Dotel scored Walt Weiss. Shawon Dunston singled to center after a 12-pitch at-bat to lead off the 15th for the Mets. Matt Franco walked and Alfonzo sacrificed the runners over. Olerud was walked intentionally to load the bases. Todd Pratt walked to force home Dunston with the tying run. Robin Ventura then cracked a "grand slam single" as the Shea crowd exploded. As Robin rounded first base his teammates mobbed him, never allowing him to finish his trot around the bases, and thus officially settling for a single.

Trailing 5-0 after the first inning, the Mets battled back in Game Six. Darryl Hamilton would add a two-run single in the sixth and Mike Piazza crushed a two-run home run in the seventh inning to tie the game, 7-7. New York led 8-7 in the eighth and 9-8 in the 10th, but could not hold on. Rogers walked Andruw Jones with the bases loaded in the 11th to end the series.

Bobby Jones pitches a one-hitter in the Division Series to send the Mets to the NLCS against the St. Louis Cardinals.

For the first time in franchise history, the Mets qualified for the postseason in consecutive years. New York met the team that abandoned the city in 1958, the San Francisco Giants.

In Game One, the Giants scored four times in the third inning to break a 1-1 tie and won, 5-1.

Timo Perez, subbing for an injured Derek Bell, collected three hits and two RBI in Game Two. The Mets took a three-run lead into the ninth, but J.T. Snow hit a three-run home run to tie the contest. Jay Payton's RBI single in the 10th gave New York a 5-4 lead and John Franco struck out Barry Bonds to end the game.

Back at Shea for Game Three, the Mets trailed 2-1 until Edgardo Alfonzo's two-out, RBI double in the eighth. Benny Agbayani crushed a solo walk-off home run in the 13th to lift New York to a 3-2 triumph.

Bobby J. Jones hurled baseball's first postseason complete-game, one-hit shutout in 33 years as the Mets advanced to the NLCS with a 4-0 win in Game Four. Jeff Kent collected the Giants' only hit, a double in the fifth inning. Robin Ventura got the Mets on the board with a two-run home run in the first.

Mike Hampton is mobbed by teammates after hurling a three-hitter to beat St. Louis, 7-0 in Game Five of the 2000 NLCS to send the Mets to their first World Series since 1986.

New York defeated its longtime nemesis, the St. Louis Cardinals, in five games to advance to its first World Series since 1986.

In Game One, Mike Piazza had an RBI single as the Mets jumped on top 2-0 in the first inning. Jay Payton and Todd Zeile cracked home runs in the top of the ninth to give New York some breathing room in a 6-2 victory.

In Game Two, the Mets never trailed, but let leads of 2-0, 3-1, and 5-3 vanish before Payton's ninth inning RBI single gave New York a 6-5 win.

The Cardinals ruined the Mets return to Shea scoring five runs in the first four innings en route to an 8-2 win in Game Three.

New York set a postseason record with five doubles in one inning (first) and scored seven runs in the first two innings in a 10-6 victory. Robin Ventura had three RBI, while Piazza, Todd Zeile and Benny Agbayani each chipped in with two RBI.

Mike Hampton closed out the NLCS and picked up his second win of the series with a complete-game, three-hit, 7-0 shutout in Game Five. Edgardo Alfonzo singled home Timo Perez in the first inning to set a new club record with 16 career postseason RBI. Ventura and Payton would add RBI singles later in the inning. Zeile's bases-loaded, bases-clearing double in the fourth put the game away. Rick Wilkins flew out to Perez in centerfield for the final out.

Hampton was named the NLCS MVP for his efforts. Mike finished with 16.0 scoreless innings, surrendering nine hits with 12 strikeouts. Zeile finished the NLCS hitting .368 (7-19) with eight RBI and Perez tied an NLCS record by scoring eight runs.

Mike Piazza celebrates after the Mets' 4-2 Game Three victory at Shea Stadium.

The Fall Classic was billed as the City's first Subway Series since 1956, as the Mets faced the New York Yankees.

In Game One, the Yankees jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but the Mets scored three times in the sixth on a two-run single by Bubba Trammell and an RBI single by Edgardo Alfonzo. The Yankees tied the game in the bottom of the ninth on a sacrifice fly by Chuck Knoblauch and won the game in the 12th on a two-out, bases loaded single by Jose Vizcaino.

Roger Clemens fired 8.0 shutout innings as the Mets fell, 6-5 in Game Two. The Mets scored five times in the ninth on a two-run home run by Piazza and a three-run shot by Jay Payton.

The World Series returned to Shea for the first time since 1986 and the Mets responded with a 4-2 victory in Game Three. Benny Agbayani laced an RBI double in the eighth to snap a 2-2 tie. John Franco earned the win after starter Rick Reed hurled 6.0 innings.

The Bronx Bombers scored single runs in the first three innings and hung on to beat the Mets, 3-2, in Game Four. Piazza's two-run home run put the Mets on the board in the third.

The Yankees topped the Mets, 4-2, in Game Five to win their third straight World Series. Al Leiter fired 8.2 brilliant innings, before Luis Sojo's ninth inning, two-out, RBI single to centerfield broke a 2-2 tie. Derek Jeter was named the Series MVP.

In a series-changing play at the plate, Paul Lo Duca celebrates after tagging out two Dodgers on the same play in the second inning of Game One of the 2006 NLDS. Los Angeles' Russell Martin singled to right, Shawn Green retrieved the ball and threw it to Jose Valentin, whose relay throw to Lo Duca nailed Jeff Kent at the plate. Lo Duca then turned around and tagged out J.D. Drew trying to score.

New York swept the Dodgers, three games to none, to advance to the NLCS. The Mets won Game One, 6-5, as Carlos Delgado went 4-5 with two RBI and David Wright chipped in three RBI. Delgado became the fifth player in major league history to have four or more hits with at least one home run in his first career postseason game. Carlos also tied the team record with four hits in a playoff game. In the second inning, Russell Martin singled to right, Shawn Green retrieved the ball and threw it to Jose Valentin, whose relay throw to Paul Lo Duca nailed Jeff Kent at the plate. Lo Duca then turned around and tagged out J.D. Drew trying to score. Tom Glavine posted his 13th career postseason victory in New York's 4-1 win over the Dodgers in Game Two.

Glavine fired 6.0 shutout innings. Billy Wagner notched his second save of the series with a 1-2-3 ninth inning. Endy Chavez collected two hits and Jose Reyes drove in two runs.

The Mets completed the sweep with a 9-5 triumph at Los Angeles. The Mets grabbed a 3-0 first inning lead, but the Dodgers regained a 5-4 lead after five innings. New York regained the lead with consecutive RBI singles by Reyes, Lo Duca and Carlos Beltran in the sixth inning. Green had three hits and two RBI. He also caught the final out (Ramon Martinez) of the series.

Endy Chavez leaps high above the leftfield wall to rob Scott Rolen of a two-run home run in the sixth inning of Game Seven of the NLCS vs. St. Louis.

The Cardinals defeated the Mets in a seven-game series. Tom Glavine, Guillermo Mota and Billy Wagner combined on a 2-0 shutout in Game One. Carlos Beltran cracked a two-run home run in the sixth inning. Carlos Delgado hit two home runs and drove in four runs in Game Two, but So Taguchi hit a solo home run off Wagner in the ninth inning that snapped a 6-6 tie to lift St. Louis to 9-6 victory. St. Louis scored five runs off Steve Trachsel in the first two innings and Jeff Suppan hurled 8.0 shutout innings as the Cardinals defeated the Mets, 5-0 in Game Three.

Delgado delivered five RBI and Beltran crushed two home runs as New York evened the series at two games apiece with a 12-5 triumph in Game Four.

Jose Valentin laced a bases-loaded, bases-clearing double in a six-run sixth inning. New York established club LCS records with four home runs and 12 runs scored. The 12 runs were also the most by the Mets in any playoff game. St. Louis won Game Five, 4-2, behind home runs from Albert Pujols and Chris Duncan.

The Mets returned to Shea and captured Game Six, 4-2. Jose Reyes led off the game with a home run and Paul Lo Duca had a two-out, two-run single in the eighth inning. John Maine fired 5.1 scoreless innings to pick up the win.

New York fell, 3-1, in Game Seven. Yadier Molina hit a two-run home run in the ninth inning off Aaron Heilman that snapped a 1-1 tie. David Wright had an RBI single in the first inning. Endy Chavez made one of the greatest postseason catches ever when he robbed Scott Rolen of a two-run home run in the sixth inning. Jeff Suppan was named the NLCS Most Valuable Player.

Constructed in 1988, Tradition Field is the spring training home of the New York Mets, as well as the home to the St. Lucie Mets (A) of the Florida State League and the Gulf Coast Mets rookie league team. Originally named Thomas J. White Stadium in honor of the man whose development company built and secured financing for the stadium project, which was the anchor of White's 4,614-acre master-planned St. Lucie West community. Thomas J. White Stadium opened on March 5, 1988. The Mets moved their spring training home from St. Petersburg, FL in 1988 after being located in St. Petersburg from 1962-1987.

The ballpark underwent its biggest "improvement program" following spring training in 2003. The $10 million that was spent modified, enhanced and expanded the stadium, which was renamed Tradition Field upon the completion of the renovations.

Tradition Field featured several new features in 2012. The rightfield bleacher was replaced with 500 field-level seats, highlighted by an outdoor bar and grill similar to the third base-side Tiki Bar. The rightfield section was also connected to the outfield grass berm area for easy access throughout the facility. The scoreboard was upgraded to include a larger screen and now replays highlights in HD.

Beyond the stadium gates stands an eight-foot tall sculpture that features a piece of steel that was originally part of the World Trade Center. The sculpture also displays the date 9-11-01 on the piece of steel which rests between two twin towers

The main stadium has a seating capacity of 7,000 and is available for baseball tournaments, concerts, festivals and much more.

CITI FIELD SCOREBOARDS

Citi Field features a unique, integrated, state-of-the-art video scoring and display system developed specifically for the ballpark. Over 13,000 square feet of digital display technology provides fans with high definition video, real-time statistics and much more.

Working closely with the Mets, the integrated system at Citi Field was designed and manufactured in the USA by Daktronics. Designed with fans in mind, it incorporates the latest LED display and control technologies to provide an even greater game-day experience. Daktronics is recognized as the world's leading LED video provider and has scoring/video systems installed at 26 MLB ballparks.

The center field display is 51 feet high by 70 feet wide, and provides 1,200 lines of resolution with full color LED lines of pixels on 12 mm (.47") spacing. No other outdoor venue's primary video board has tighter resolution.

The second giant HD display is located in right field, providing line ups, scores and game in progress information and statistics in addition to high definition video and graphics. A third high definition video display in the right field corner provides scoreboard features, game action and replays to fans seated in left and center field. Both HD displays utilize cutting edge Daktronics HDX technology, providing incredible viewing angels (nearly 180 degrees horizontal viewing), improved contrast for more vibrant colors, increased brightness (7,500 nits), world-class image processing and a fast refresh rate for enhanced detail and smooth motion.

Citi Field is also home to one of the longest ribbon boards in baseball. Surrounding the seating bowl on the Promenade level fascia, the board is nearly 850 feet in length. The ribbon board provides a variety of scoring information, as well as option captioning of the PA Audio system - a helpful amenity for the hearing-impaired.

One of MLB's largest out-of-town scoreboards graces the front of the roof canopy in left-center field, keeping fans informed with continuous display of score, inning, pitchers, base runners and outs of all the day's MLB games around both leagues.

Seven additional LED displays are located outside the seating bowl. Video and scoring displays are mounted on the rear of the main centerfield scoreboard, providing video and game information to fans visiting the "Taste of the City" and "2KSports Fan Fest" areas beyond centerfield. An additional LED video display is located on Mr. Met's Kiddie Field in the Fan Fest area, a scale replica of the ballpark's major league playing field, where kids can see themselves as they take a few swings or shag flies.

An exterior marquee display on the North side of the building greets arriving fans, and provides information to those passing by. Citi Field's main entrance, the beautiful Jackie Robinson rotunda, is served by two 9 foot by 16 foot LED video displays, providing multi-media imagery of the great Jackie Robinson as well as game day information and video. An additional HD video screen carries all of the game action for fans visiting the shops and eateries on the Promenade plaza behind home plate.

The video and scoring displays at Citi Field are operated by the Mets Video & Entertainment staff. The New York Mets organization is a member of IDEA, the Information Display & Entertainment Association, and has won several IDEA Golden Matrix Awards for excellence in video and scoreboard programming.
